EDITORIAL POLICY

Ad Americam. Journal of American Studies is an interdisciplinary journal edited at Institute of American Studies and Polish Diaspora, Jagiellonian University, Krakow, Poland. Ad Americam publishes double-blind peer-reviewed articles by scholars on American history, politics, law, culture, sociology and comparative studies of American and other cultures. It is rather impossible to predict the exact length of time that will be required to process any given manuscript but usual time between final decisions and print publication is about 6-8 months. The editors make all final decisions upon the advice of members of the editorial board and two reviewers. The review process usually takes up to 6-8 weeks. Authors will receive a proofread copy of the manuscript for final approval. Please be aware that license agreement will be signed between the Publisher and the Author after accepting the final manuscript for publication. Prospective author(s) MUST include the ORCID identification number (<https://orcid.org/>) when submitting the manuscript for consideration.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

The article should be submitted as an email attachment, formatted in double-spacing, 12-point font. Leave 2.5 cm margins on all sides of page. Contributions MUST include keywords and abstract of the article (of approximately 200 words). Contact address and a short biographical note (of approximately 100 words) must also be submitted but saved in a separate file. Authors should remove all self-identification information (e.g. names, institutional affiliations, email addresses) from articles. Any such material may be added back into the manuscript, if it is accepted for publication.

Spelling must confirm to American usage, please check if it is consistent throughout.

References to other works: please follow the MLA style. In-text citations should be placed, within parentheses, at the appropriate locations within the text. Each citation should consist of the author's last name (or authors' last names), followed by page number(s):
