INFORMATION FOR THE AUTHORS

“Politeja” is an academic journal brought out by the Faculty of International and Political Studies of the Jagiellonian University in Krakow, Poland. It publishes articles belonging to the field of broadly understood Political Sciences, International Relations and Cultural Studies. We invite academics as well as PhD students, both from academic centres in Poland and abroad, to submit scholarly articles and book reviews that are original, not published before and not at the same time reviewed by any other editor. We accept articles written in Polish and in English. The final decision of the Editorial Board depends on the positive result of an anonymous reviewing process. The reviewers are selected by the Editorial Board from among the specialists of a given discipline.

Formal requirements:

1. Texts in Word format are to be sent to the e-mail address: politeja@uj.edu.pl.
2. The length of an article should not be less than 40 000 characters (including footnotes and spaces) and it should not exceed 40 standard pages. The texts should include bibliography.
3. On the first page of the article the following data should be given:
name of the author
affiliation
e-mail address
address for correspondence
number of characters (with spaces and footnotes):
4. The text should include an abstract in English (max. 12 verses), with the English translation of the article's title, an abstract in Polish, and the author's bio-data. A downloadable example of an abstract is available on the “Politeja” website (<http://www.politeja.wsmip.uj.edu.pl>).
5. Footnotes should be prepared according to the system used in “Politeja” (available on the “Politeja” website).
